Terms of Use for the Gooding Chamber of Commerce Website

- Only one account per business is permitted. Members with more than one business must have a membership for each business.
- When registering, a valid email address must be used.
- All listings must be in English.
- Do not advertise illegal products. Please do not expose us to any unnecessary legal liability.
- Post your listing in the most appropriate categories. Any posts deemed to be in the wrong category will be moved.
- Use your own words. If you wish to use the words of somebody else, quote them, citing the source. Plagiarism is unethical and is illegal.
- Do not use ALL CAPS and do not add false information.
- Your page will be reviewed each time you make a change so please don't get approved then add inappropriate content.
- Do not post or link to any site that contains adult content, sexually oriented material or might otherwise be considered offensive. Any post containing inappropriate content or links will be deleted and the membership will be terminated. Dues will not be refunded.
- If you feel a listing violates any of these rules, or you need to bring it to the attention of the Gooding Chamber of Commerce.
- The administrator may edit member listing edited when deemed necessary.

By submitting this form, member acknowledges receipt of Chamber policy and agrees to comply with said policy, as well as municipal, State and Federal law, and acknowledges that membership may be terminated if such is not followed. Members will operate their businesses in a manner that reflects positively on the Chamber. The Gooding Chamber reserves the right to review any member's Chamber membership and reserves the right to suspend or terminate membership at the Chamber's absolute discretion. Dues will not be refunded.